

Art & ANTIQUES

COMING IN WINTER 2019-20

This winter, warm up with Art & Antiques as we take you inside the art and antiques fair scene, as well as the auction market and the most intriguing gallery and museum shows. The Winter Antiques Show comes to New York, the L.A. Art Show graces the other coast, and Palm Beach Modern + Contemporary gives art aficionados yet another reason to come to South Florida.

© THE SLOBODKINA FOUNDATION

Esphyr Slobodkina: Known to millions as a children's-book author and illustrator, the Russian-born artist was an important contributor to abstract painting and an early member of the American Abstract Artists group. In this issue, we explore Slobodkina's life and work.

COLLECTION RINGLING MUSEUM © ESTATE OF SYD SOLOMON

Syd Solomon: An "Abstract Impressionist" sensitive to nature, Solomon established himself in Sarasota, Fla., where he was the first contemporary artist to be shown at the Ringling Museum. We consider his legacy as painter and graphic artist, on the occasion of a retrospective of his work at the Ringling.

Japanese Ceramics: A 19th-century Canadian collector's obsession led to a massive collection of top-quality works from Japan. Now on view at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts, the Van Horne Collection reveals the mastery of the artists and the diversity of their expression.

To reserve your advertising space, call today: 910.679.4402

Subscribe online: ArtandAntiquesMag.com